Greatest Enthusiasm Feit in Memphis Concerning the Home

The greatest interest is felt in the coming brills at Louisville, and the Memphis people re enthusiatically backing the Chicks. All the companies are drilling uninterpolately, and it is hardly necessary to say ledly, and it is hardly necessary to say that more interest is felt here in the contest than any previous one in which the Chicks have engaged. The following information will be of interest to all the Memphis boys

Second.—A cash prize of $1000 to the company exhibiting the next highest average.

Third.—A cash prize of $500 to any Kentucky company adjudged to have exhibited the next highest degree of proficiency, and $250 to a Kentucky company which shall be adjudged to have exhibited the next highest degree of excellence; provided, that three or more Kentucky companies shall drill, two of whom being from points in Kentucky outside of Jefferson county.
